

Retain our right to hear the widest possible variety of news comment. Do not allow telecommunications companies to increase their holdings and control. A free press is necessary to a free society.